PRESS RELEASE

TAKE THE HUMANITARIAN ROAD!

Young people invite you to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Museum.

Come and discover with them the different areas of the Museum and the history and actions of the Red Cross Movement.

This invitation to take the humanitarian road is open for 8 to 16 years old and their parents between 10:00 and 12:00 every Sunday morning in March, April and May (except Easter Sunday).

Your guides for this special tour of the Museum will be thirty students of the International School of Geneva, acting within the framework of their Creativity, Action and Service (CAS) project.

The visit is free of charge for children up to the age of 16. There is no need to book in advance.
